ALLIANZ GLOBAL ASSISTANCE RENEWS EASYJET CONTRACT Building on a 12-year partnership delivering quality travel insurance www.allianz-global-assistance.com

Allianz Global Assistance continues to strengthen its partnership with easyJet, Europe's leading low cost airline, as it secures a three-year contract renewal in Europe. Under the new pan-European agreement, Allianz Global Assistance will continue delivering single and annual multi-trip insurance, as well as missed-flight cover. This renewal confirms Allianz Global Assistance's expertise in the international travel insurance market, supporting its clients in delivering an enhanced level of customer service.

Xavier Mauriac, Travel, Retail & Telcos International Sales Director at Allianz Global Assistance, says "We will continue working closely with easyJet to deliver a range of innovative insurance products, designed to offer travellers a new level of convenience and cover they can trust. This contract renewal builds on our 12-year relationship with easyJet, boosting brand awareness and giving holidaymakers easy access to quality cover."

This year marks a significant milestone for easyJet, reaching 60 million passengers and increasing the number of people flying with the service by 7.1%.

Greg O'Gorman, Head of Partnerships at easyJet adds, "Our partnership with Allianz Global Assistance offers us the expertise we need to deliver insurance products that meet the changing needs of our customers. The depth of knowledge and global network Allianz Global Assistance has, ensures our customers gain the same level of service no matter where they travel. We look forward to working closely over the next three years, harnessing new opportunities to enhance the customer experience and the reach of the easyJet brand."
