Medical & Life Protection

Follow-up Medical Treatment in Thailand (EN2605)

- The Insured Person has received medical treatment abroad and requires follow-up treatment in Thailand: The Insured Person must seek follow-up treatment at a Hospital or Medical Center in Thailand within 24 hours of arrival in Thailand. Coverage for follow-up medical treatment shall not exceed 720 hours (30 days) from the time of arrival in Thailand.
- The Insured Person has not received medical treatment for such injury or illness while abroad: The Insured Person must seek medical treatment at a hospital or medical center in Thailand within 24 hours of arrival in Thailand. Coverage for follow-up medical treatment shall not exceed 168 hours from the time of arrival in Thailand.

Emergency Medical Evacuation, Repatriation, and Repatriation of Mortal Remains to Thailand or Home Country (IA2603):

All decisions regarding the means of transportation and the final destination will be made solely by the Company's Authorized Representative based on medical necessity and standard protocols.

Emergency Telephone Charges (EN2601):

Covers the actual expenses incurred for an emergency phone calls made by the Insured Person to contact the Company's Authorized Representative regarding a medical emergency occurring during the Period of Insurance.

Hospital Confinement Abroad – Minimum 3 consecutive nights (EN2606):

In the event that the Insured Person requires medically necessary inpatient hospitalization due to an accidental Injury or an emergency Illness for a minimum of three (3) consecutive nights. The Company will pay the daily benefit retroactively from the first night of hospitalization (up to the maximum daily limit per Injury or Illness).

In the event that the Insured Person is admitted as an Inpatient in a Hospital in certain countries where medical expenses are not itemized into daily room and board charges, the Company will process the claim based on the official documentation issued by the Hospital and pay the Hospital Confinement Abroad benefit based on the actual number of nights stayed.

Travel Care & Inconvenience

Trip Cancellation or Postponement (IA2606):

Coverage will be provided if the Insured Person's confirmed trip is cancelled or postponed within 30 days before the commencement of the trip due to unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the Insured Person, such as the death, severe injury, or serious sickness of the Insured Person. Such payments may include non-refundable advance payments or deposits for airfares, accommodation, and travel bookings.

Trip Curtailment (IA2607):

Applies when the Insured Person has already commenced the journey but must return to Thailand earlier than scheduled, resulting in a reduced number of travel days, due to unforeseen circumstances and beyond the control of the Insured Person.

Flight Delay (IA2608):

Applies when the Insured's scheduled flight is delayed from the original schedule specified in the flight timetable due to specific events as defined by the Company, for a continuous period of at least 6 consecutive hours.

Missed Flight Connection (IA2609):

Applies when the Insured Person misses any onward connecting scheduled flight at the transfer point due to the late arrival of the incoming flight on which the Insured Person is traveling, resulting from specific events as defined by the Company, and no alternative onward flight is available within 6 consecutive hours of arrival.

Baggage & Personal Property Care

Personal Liability (IA2613):

Covers the Insured Person's Personal liability to compensate for incidents occurring during the travel period that result in the death, bodily injury, or illness of any third party, or the loss of or damage to third-party property.

Rental Car Excess (EN2602):

Covers the excess or deductible that the Insured Person is legally liable to pay under the rental agreement and voluntary motor insurance policy for the Insured Person's rental vehicle sustaining loss or damage resulting from an accident during an overseas trip.
